

Co-Sponsored by:

- Brookdale Community College's Asia Society
- Brookdale Community College's Center for WWII Studies & Conflict Resolution
- New Jersey Alliance for Learning & Preserving the History of WWII in Asia (NJ-ALPHA)

Special Exhibition and Presentation

“Japan’s Biological and Chemical Warfare in China”

Date: Wednesday, September 11, 2013

Time: Exhibition: 10:00 AM – 9:30 PM

Presentation: 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM

Location: Student Life Center, Brookdale Community College, 765 Newman Springs Road, Lincroft, NJ (Parking Lot #6)

Program Content:

- 50 panel displays from the “Museum of the War of Chinese People’s Resistance Against Japanese Aggression,” Beijing, China
- Speakers: Museum Curator or Vice-Curator and Mr. Daniel Barenblatt, author of the book A Plague Upon Humanity

Issues Addressed:

- Unit 731: World’s largest research center and factory of weapons of mass destruction
- Some of the world’s most inhumane atrocities
- Why the leaders of Unit 731 were never prosecuted?
- Lasting effects, including thousands of chemical weapons still buried underground in China today

Free Public Event