

The Woman Who Could Not Forget

IRIS CHANG BEFORE AND BEYOND The Rape of Nanking

a memoir by Ying-Ying Chang

Introduction by Richard Rhodes

“The Woman Who Could Not Forget is a moving, superb book.” — Jim Lehrer, host of PBS Newshour

“Without Iris' perseverance and courage, the Nanking massacre would have remained a tragic secret. Now, her mother's determination to set the record straight gives us an intimate portrait of a brilliant historian and a beloved daughter.” — Ted Leonsis, producer of the film Nanking and author of *The Business of Happiness

“Read this book by her mother and you will know Iris Chang as the courageous woman she was.” — James Bradley, author of Flags of Our Fathers, Flyboys, *The Imperial Cruise
